

Where is the source code stored?

The source code is stored in a secure media storage facility, away from Intellect Enterprises' offices.

To ensure preservation of the media, the vaults are equipped with:

- advanced air conditioning units, controlling temperature and humidity

- the latest technology in fire suppression provides an automatic discharge of gas in the event of a fire condition existing.

- permanently monitored intruder alarm systems.