
Transfer your existing Contracts

Transfer your existing Contracts

If you already use an escrow service and want to take advantage of all the benefits of Intellect Enterprises software escrow, including savings of up to 70%, then take advantage of Intellect Enterprises' fully managed service at no extra cost.

Intellect Enterprises will take responsibility for the termination of your existing contracts, as well as transferring users at agreed intervals.

Just call or fill out the relevant sections in the escrow Order Form and one of our team will contact you to arrange the transfer.

Testimonial

"Microdec have been members of Intellect for many years and have always found their Software Escrow Service to be prompt and professional, which is essential when dealing with our clients".
